From Agent "W"

I hope you had a wonderfully restful weekend! I know we did, my fat cat was extremely happy to have me home. (I am his favorite) He hasn't been smacking me in the head as often when I walk by.

Please take the time to look over the "Reminders" section. I have been posting pictures on class dojo. Your kids are cute as buttons!

Memory Verse (every Friday)

When Lucifer chose not to follow God anymore, he and his angels were thrown out of Heaven. As Satan, he tested Adam and Eve to doubt God, and they sinned, too. But Jesus fought back by becoming human, living a perfect life, and then dying to pay for our sins

Revelation 12:7, 9

Mystery

The one who makes it sells it.

The one who buys it doesn't use it.

The one who's using it doesn't know he's using it.

What is it?

A: they dropped out of school hahahahaha... see the next newsletter for the answer!
