From Agent "W"

Our first week together in the new year has been a lot of fun if I do say so myself. I learned 16 new handshakes, how to be a "power ball", and I learned about a new dinosaur named Maximo.

Grades will be coming out soon. Please feel free to contact me if you would like to have a conference via telephone or in person.

Don't forget! Math tutoring is Mon.-Thurs. from 7:30-8:00a. Please try to be on time.
